Weather Is Cold. Freezing temperatures covered practically the entire belt, although they were not entirely an evil, perhaps. Work was stopped and planting delayed although possibly some little benefit resulted from the killing off of some of the bugs and insect peats where the land had been turned. Temperatures in some districts reached levels almost as low as at any time during the winter. After the worst had passed and the warming up started, rains came to ter. After the worst had passed and the warming up started, rains came to certain districts, chiefly from Eastern Texas across to the Atlantic seaboard, which further interfered with farm work. Most of Texas, however, had little and work was resumed when it grew warmer. In this councetion, the publication of figures showing that rainfall in that state during February was more than one inch less than normal for the month tended to attract notice and minimise concern about the hig state, although overshadowed for the time being by other influences. The chaim that small grains in that state were suffering from lack of rain also did not escape the notice of some observant people.

but the incentive to the South Trying to gaine as much as possible of food and feed necessities is greater than ever, as prices show no sign of declining. This is counted on to stimulate adhershroad and progress toward reducing as prices show as sign of declining. Surope's obligations in this country, together with weather in practically the entire belt which was unfavorable to trop preparations, made a combination which afforder little peace of mind to the bear crowd. There were a few breathing spells and it times some indication that a reaction report keep the technical position from becoming topheavy. The general trend was upward and some new high marks were recorded, while bullish confidence was stimulated.

The list in New York finished the period at gains of $1 to 187 points, while New Orleans quit at a loss of 18 points on the March position to a gain of 137 on January. Final prices were not far below the top and those who had been playing for a reaction apparently had decided discretion the better part of valor and retired to their dens for another spell.

In the spot department there was ef-tual business has yet resulted. The fluctuations merely contributed to the erratic condition of the market and the holder of the unsold portion of the crop is still wondering how soon he will be able to lighten his load.

Another factor having to do with the improvement in foreign sentiment and the rise in exchange was probably the pronouncement from the allied commission regarding what ought to be done to help in the process of reconstruction. This had been intimated already, but encouragement was had when the details of the proposed plan were given out. Movement for export for the week

Movement for export for the week was larger, although figures were lacking on Friday because of crippled wire service. The total was sufficient, however, to cut considerably into port stocks. For the service of date exports have been nearly 5,600,000 bales and it seems reasonable to suppose that they will hold up for some time to come and help to transfer much of the carry-over to the other side. One thing during the week which attracted attention was the fact that 17,000 bales were cleared on one day for Bremen, Germany. Holders of the low grades are banking high on that country coming to their rescue later, as their manufacturers have always been among the largest user of them.

Movement into sight, according to Hester, showed a total of 169,252 bales, making 10,021.620 for the season. This week last year it was 124,809 and a total of 8,931,690. The relative decrease in supply of American visible was 51,000, the actual decrease for the week having been 95,851, compared with 44,210 a year ago. Spinners took 262,000 bales, compared with 162,000 this week last year, and the total is 8,743,000, against 7,228,000.

which further interfered with farm work. Most of Texas, however, had little and work was resumed when it grew warmer. In this connection, the publication of figures showing that rainfall in that state during February was more than one inch less than normal for the month tended to attract notice and minimise concern about the big state, although overshadowed for the time being by other influences. The claim that small grains in that state were suffering from lack of rain also did not escape the notice of some observant people.

One or two preliminary guesses on probable acreage came, but were given little notice, the presumption still being that an increase will be had, but may be offset by lateness of start. The absence of any concerted effort to hold acreage down is perhape significant,

GRAIN MARKETS

Reported Overthrow German Government Has Depressing Influence on Corn.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Weakness in the corn market resulted today from the overthrow of the German government and from the longshoremen's strike at New York. Opening prices which ranged from %c to %c lower, with May $1.47% to $1.47% and July $1.41% to $1.41%, were followed by moderate further declines and then something of a general reaction.

The close was nervous at the same as yesterday's finish to %c lower.

Oats lacked any aggressive support. After opening %c to %c down, including July at 75%c, the market sagged a little more and then tended to recover.

Provisions were weak with grain.

Better Weather and German Government Overthrow Have Slightly Weakening Effect.

Walurday Afternoon, March 13. Moderate mealmess developed in the nucleof during fire short session today. out it alid not we to the extent of encouracing much bearinhess. The reported overthrow of the German goverument tended to unsettle confidence a little, for there is no telling how farmay be the effects of such. The news at first was doubted but seemed pretty well confurmed before the close, Sterting did not show much whange,
although German marks were depressed.

The weather was better than ex-meeted and indications were for mor-favorable conditions, which gave som-impetus to the resction. Temperature did not go as low as predicted and impetus to the reaction. Temperatures did not go as low as predicted and rains were largely in the castern beit. The map looked favorable for fair and warmer, which if continued for a few days will probably bring a lot of advices telling of work being pushed and of some fears having perhaps been exaggerated. A wire from South-Central Texas this morning said that conditions down there were getting in fine shape.

NEW YORK COTTON.

disregarding advices from abroad re-NEW YORK, March 13.—The cotton market showed renewed activity at the opening today. The optimistic feeling with reference to early action porting the overthrow of the German porting the overthrow of the German government. Rails were prominent in the advance, many of those issues, under leadership of Reading, Missouri Pacific, Texas company and Baltimore & Ohio, mounting to highest prices of the week. Among industrials Crucible Steel was the outstanding feature, advancing 15 points on heavy accumulation. Other steels made substantial gains and motors and related specialties also strengthened after carly irregularity with equipments and shippings. Moderate reactions accompanied the profit taking in the final dealings. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 500,000 shares. the opening today. The optimistic feeling with reference to early action on the peace treaty seemed to have been modified overnight but the strength of late yesterday brought in buying orders, and the opening was unchanged to 10 points higher with May selling at 37.10 or a new high record and July at 34.45 or into new high ground for the season. There was heavy realizing, however, particularly by Wall street interests which were probably influenced by reports of disturbances in Germany, and prices broke quite sharply right after the call with May selling off to 36.81 and July to 34.17, although there was buying on the unfavorable weather in the South and reports of increased activity in the goods market.

While nothing of a detailed nature was learned regarding the reported political disturbances in Germany, sentiment remained very nervous and unsettled later in the morning. The decline extended to 36.70 for May and 31.58 for October or about 25 to 37 points below last nights closing figures under continued liquidation and the market closed steady at decline of 5 to 41 points.

INTEREST GROWING RAPIDLY IN PECOS DISTRICT Yesterday an oil capitalist bought a million dollars worth of these leases through advice of eminent geologists. Get in on leases in this district; only one dollar an acre now and watch values advance. State stands back of my leases, enabling me to sell so cheap. Can deliver from forty acres to as many sections as desired. Rental paid for one year. Leases going so rapidly necessitates your immediate order if you get this price. Deep tests all around. Can likely double your money many times before next fail. Full information FREE. References: Any bank in Fort Worth or Austin. HENRY B. CLARK, Wholesale Lease Dealer 501 Main St., Fort Worth, Texas
